

TURKEY IS THE TOPIC . . . Next Tuesday evening when the North Torrance Fuchsia Society holds its pot luck dinner and program at McMasters Hall, 174th and Yukon. Konya, Turkey, Torrance's sister city, will be the topic of discussion. Charles Wortham, left, who recently returned from Turkey, will show colored slides of Konya. Here he discusses the program with Mrs. Stephen Boyko, program chairman of the club, and Giragos J. Harootunian, former Turkey resident. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. and the program will follow.

Hospital Aides Juniors Lend Hand With New Hospital

Little Company of Mary Junior Auxiliary, which until now has worked in silence having been organized a year ago last May, this week announced its new officers for the year and revealed its accomplishments and purposes. At that first organizational meeting, there were only seven girls in the age range and further information may be obtained by calling Miss Kelly.

Serving as president is Miss Carol Kelly, whose mother, Mrs. F. J. Kelly, 1633 Hickory Ave., has served as advisor. Other officers are Pat Rinaldi, first vice president; Rickie Ce De Boco, second vice president; Carol Lydon, secretary; Nancy O'Hara, treasurer, and Linda Real, publicity.

The group meets once a month. Membership is open to any girl in the age range and further information may be obtained by calling Miss Kelly.

From rag and paper drives, the girls raised enough money to purchase material for bedspreads for the pediatric ward. They have made the spreads and embroidered nursery rhyme characters on them. Their next project is the purchase of a $900 "isole" or incubator for the obstetrics ward at the hospital. Through an ice cream social, cake and candy sales the fund for the new isole has already reached $300.

The girls are currently selling turkeys for the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays and are also planning a cake sale within the next few weeks, proceeds to go to their isole fund.

Since Mrs. Kelly is a registered nurse, the girls have been taught to make hospital beds and minor care of patients. The Junior Auxiliary members are working on draperies at the new hospital and will assist with assembling the rooms for the dedication scheduled for Dec. 12.

After the opening of the hospital, each auxiliary member is required to work 15 hours a month at the hospital. The girls have recently received the aqua pinafore and white blouse uniforms which they will wear while on duty at the hospital.

I hate to lose this fellow. He's got lots of good qualities, but I don't want to give in on this. Please advise.—GO TEAM.

Dear Go: If the school authorities have okayed the costume your boy friend should have no beefs. He's being inconsiderate and selfish.

(P. S. The current fashions are almost up there right now!)

Dear Ann: Call me a bum sport, a poor loser or just plain cheap. Anyway, I need some advice.

Four of us fellows match coins to see who pays for the coffee during our breaks. I lose four times out of five and I can't figure it out. I don't know how the flip can be rigged, but the law of averages says I should do better than this.

I'm getting tired of being the sucker but I don't know how to get off the spot. Help! Help!—CHUMPEROONIE.

Dear Chumperoonie: I don't know what the gimmick is either, but I DO know that you can just say "no more flipping"—and pay for your own coffee.

Are your parents too strict? You can benefit from the experiences of thousands of teenagers if you read ANN LANDERS' booklet "How to Live With Your Parents," enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a large self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper envelope.) Copyright, 1959, Field Enterprises, Inc.

A reception was held in the church social hall and, Mrs. Melba Stugart was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds then left for Coos Bay, Oregon, on a 10-day honeymoon. Their new address is 1702 Neptune Ave., Wilmington.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Narbonne High school and are active at the Western Avenue Baptist Church.

Mr. Hanna served two years with the United States Army stationed in Germany. He is employed at the Torrance Herald.

VAN SEZ:

Do you know that the Vatican at Rome contains 1,000 rooms? That is a lot of space. Speaking of floor space, floor coverings are important. Your kitchen, bath and service porch floors should be covered with linoleum or tile. Other rooms may be decorated with wall-to-wall or room-size carpets. In all cases, VAN'S is the place to go. They know their business at VAN'S and will be glad to advise you as to quality, color and styling of your floor coverings. Call today.

Entertain at Club Parties

Two diminishing card parties being sponsored by the Torrance Woman's club were given last Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Delbert Thomsen and Mrs. B. T. Whitney were hostesses.

Both bridge and canasta were played at the party given by Mrs. Thomsen at her home, 1447 El Prado.

In the games following a luncheon, the high score in bridge was held by Mrs. Paul Loranger and high canasta player was Mrs. J. E. Stavert.

Mrs. Thomsen's guests were Mmes. H. W. Bowman, W. L. Tilley, J. E. Stavert, L. G. Pulliam, M. A. Bauman, Paul Loranger, R. J. Prout and R. E. Moffitt.

An autumn arrangement of chrysanthemums centered the luncheon table at the Palos Verdes home of Mrs. B. T. Whitney.

At the conclusion of the bridge games, the high score was held by Mrs. Dean Sears and second by Mrs. J. S. Wallace.

Mrs. Whitney's guests were Mmes. H. R. Altermat, R. A. Bingham, W. C. Crooker, F. P. Foley, Sears, Alma Smith and J. S. Wallace. Mrs. Otto Willett, unable to attend, contributed to the club's philanthropy fund.

Big Bazaar Slated Nov. 14

Annual bazaar of the WALTERIA Community Methodist Church, sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, will be held Saturday, Nov. 14. Doors will open at 10 a.m. Several booths have been planned including aprons, books, candy, children's toys, baked goods, novelties, white elephants, and a fish pond. A baked ham dinner will be served from 5 to 7 p.m. Marty Anderson and Peggy Randall are co-chairmen of the dinner. Lucille O'Brien is in charge of decorations. The booths are being supervised by Gertrude Jackson and Clara Pemble. Doreen Lucas is handling publicity. Work organization is being done by Jean Austin.

Gala Housewarming Fetes C. N. Bergons

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Bergon, who have made their home in Lomita for the past 29 years, recently moved into their new home at 2440 W. 229th St., Torrance.

Last Saturday evening, they were honored at a housewarming given by their granddaughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Johnson.

The Bergons are the parents of Mrs. Thomas Todd, Mrs. Clem Piper, Roy Bergon and Fred Bergon of the Torrance-Lomita area and Mrs. Alva G. Clark of Monrovia.

Autumn flowers decorated the table from which a large decorated cake was served with punch, coffee, candies and nuts.

Two door prizes were awarded and the Bergons received many gifts including a number of plants for their yard.

Attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Jacob Strange, J. N. Stewart, Ben Zeltzer, Bert Dunn, Albert Cronquist, Ben Piper, Al Lulay, Ray McAllister, Willkett Miller, Joe Cugin, Claude Cobb, Bill Osborne, Harold Johnson, Clifford Todd, Tony Johnson, Roy Bergon, Fred Bergon, Alva Clark, Clam Piper, Earl Clark, and Clifford Bergon.

Others were Mmes. Nina Smith, Pearl Lund, Dicie Morefield, Marge Todd, Elvera Ross and Messrs. Laval Holtzman, Joe Knighton, and Robert Todd.

Memory Fashions To Be Presented by Council

"Memory Melody" is the theme of the fashion show to be staged by the Woman's Council of the St. Philomena church on Thursday, Nov. 12, at 8 p.m. in the school hall, 21900 Main St.

Top fashions of years gone by will be furnished by the Goodwill Industries. The creations will be modeled by the members of the Woman's Council.

Refreshments will be served by the hospitality committee under the direction of Mmes. Paul Ferrara and Hubert Logan. A door prize will also be awarded.

The public is invited to attend the event, announced Mrs. Dale Thompson, publicity chairman.

Tickets are on sale at the church after the masses or they may be obtained by calling Mrs. Richard Keeffe.

Young Set Entertained

Leslie and Claudia Barrington and Michael and Steven Leech entertained at an hilarious Halloween party last Saturday evening in the rumpus room at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barrington, 2368 Torrance Blvd.

The guests assembled at 6 p.m. and accompanied by three fathers, Robert Leech, Jack Barrington and Robert Tolson spent two hours tricking and treating. They then returned to the Barrington home for traditional Halloween games, including "bobbin for the apple," "apple on a string," a balloon game and the opening of a pumpkin pinata.

After the games, refreshments were served.

Guests were Kathy Hatter, Trudy Blair, Terry Van Dyck, Cynthia Bailey, Cindy Tolson, Janet Posner, Belinda Boulter, Stacey Barrington.

Others were Bob and Billy Tolson, Roger Blakely, Roger Wark, Johnny Xanthakis, Greg Strayer, Bryan Lynn, and Steven Xanthakis.
